Deathwatch Broslin Creek 1 Dana

Deathwatch by Dana Marton is the first book in the Broslin Creek series and sucked me right in from the first page. Kate and Murphy are a perfect team once they develop trust in each other. The action was almost nonstop and the reveal was a shock for me. The writing is solid and fluid so I kept turning the pages to know more.

Deathwatch is the first installment in the Broslin Creek series. The Broslin Creek series is a collection of books revolving around the small town of Broslin Creek, of course. Deathwatch read very well stand alone, and I'm sure the rest are just as good. My warnings for this stay in line with the genre. Graphic violence, language and some sex.

Deathwatch Broslin Creek 1 Dana Marton

This was my first Dana Marton book and I enjoyed it...perhaps more than the 3-stars indicate. I was un-engaged for the first few pages. I know that they were critical for setting the stage but they were really rather tedious. I really got engrossed in it from the point that we were introduced to Kate and Murph

I was captivated by the suspense through the story. Also, this is the first audio that was narrated by Talmadge Ragan. Her narration added to the story in my opinion. I really enjoyed reading this story and looking forward to listening or reading the rest of the Broslin Creek book series and other books by Dana Marton.

If I had any complaint about the book at all, it was that the ending left Kate and Murph's story partially unresolved. I'm thrilled to report that in Broslin Creek book #5, BROSLIN BRIDE: GONE AND DONE IT, DEATHWATCH garners its own better-than satisfactory closure in the Epilogue. What a wonderful surprise that was! It was perfection!
