Britain's Green Ride Series, there are 6 books and the 7th is being written. Fantasy, adventure, lil bit of romance, magic, horses, a kingdom to be saved. Really good, really worth it. The first book Green Rider, is a little slow in the first chapter or so as it is setting up the story.

Britain does a decent job with horses and outdoor living, better than most, and the strange catacombs and guarded bodies of the dead is a mildly interesting idea. But the world is just too full of reworkings of Tolkien and company, unbelievably smug and stupid bad guys, or supposedly medieval characters with far too modern sensibilities.
